Goodwill Industries of San Antonio is a Section 501 (c)(3) non-profit social enterprise.

Our mission is to help change lives through the power of work in San Antonio, Cibolo, Kerrville, Laredo, New Braunfels, Seguin and surrounding communities.

Goodwill provides education, training, and career services through the Good Careers Academies and Good Careers Centers that prepare people to find better jobs and build careers in high demand fields.

We fund our mission through the sale of donated goods in our retail stores and through Business Services offered by our Contract Services unit.

Contract Services

Goodwill provides Business Services through our Contract Services unit. We have contracts with the government, private employers and non-profit organizations, providing document management, landscaping/grounds maintenance, transcription services, recycling and more.

Contract Services has earned ISO 9001 certification for excellent quality management processes and is proud to provide employment opportunities to over 600 employees, many of whom have a significant disability, including 158 service-disabled Veterans.

Donation Stations and Stores

In our 24-county region, we have 36 donation stations and 22 stores. When you donate to or shop at any of these Goodwill locations, you help fund our mission. In addition, we offer shoppers a simple and convenient way to purchase books, collectibles, and other unique treasures online at goodwillsaonline.com and FREE home pickup services for donor convenience.

Good Careers Academy

With three locations in San Antonio, our Good Careers Academies provide training, education, and employment opportunities to start, retain, or advance careers. We are accredited by the Council on Occupational Education and the Texas Workforce Commission, offering affordable and short-term certification programs in high demand employment fields.

Good Careers Centers

Our Good Careers Centers are a free community resource providing résumé and job search assistance to prepare people to find better jobs and build careers. Additionally, we offer support to help eliminate barriers to education and employment. The centers are open to the public and located throughout the community.
