Our Journey Continues

The key to Goodwill San Antonio's success is our people, and we are deeply committed to continuing an organization that reflects the diversity of our community.

In 2023, the Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) Panel continued to build momentum in the organization through events, training, and awareness.

Through the formation of focus groups, webinars, and community participation, we provided safe zones for support where employees could engage in ways that are meaningful to them.

As a result, we enhanced inclusive practices into everything we do to ensure an unbiased employee experience at all levels of the organization.

Through tailored programs like, AbilityOne, we provide access to growth opportunities, professional development, and support in accomplishing goals to ensure that our employees from historically underrepresented groups are given every opportunity to thrive at Goodwill San Antonio.

We are proud of some of the measures we have taken to ensure our employees are supported and empowered. Our Life Skills Counselors and Coaching (LSC) units extend services to our employees struggling with life needs and mental wellness. We take our obligation to our employees seriously and hold ourselves accountable to walking the walk on inclusion.

The work is far from done; but we are humbled by the challenge and opportunity ahead of us to be better change agents. The data highlighted in this report include employee demographic data, self-reporting categories, key initiatives and investments made in 2023, with a continued focus on supporting and helping our employees and their families.

In 2023, the executive leadership team committed the organization to an 80% DEI training goal as one of the six main Goodwill San Antonio's scoreboard metrics for the organization.

The Representation

Our numbers reflect the Goodwill San Antonio employee population as of December 31, 2023. At this time, we had 1,782 employees located in the Greater San Antonio Area. Consistent with our EEO-1 reports, the data may not include employees who chose not to self-identify during onboarding.

Ethnicity reflects the EEO-1 categories required by the US Government Reports; we understand that these may be imperfect categorizations of both race and ethnicity. Also, the report does not capture other forms of diversity, such as ability and veteran status, to name a few.

We are actively working on many elements of diversity and inclusion at Goodwill San Antonio, and you will see in the pie chart our employees responded to these self-reporting questions in the self-reported data category.

Self-Reported Categories

Reporting on gender, ethnicity and age data helps Goodwill San Antonio track progress of our diversity over time, but they are imperfect categories. Diversity is layered and we are constantly stretching ourselves to make sure our data and reports properly reflect those demographics.

Self-reported data is one way we work to better understand how Goodwill San Antonio's employee population identifies. The self-reported survey is anonymous and voluntary, and this year, we continued with the same six (6) expanded categories from 2023.

In the 2023 survey, 26.21% of Goodwill San Antonio's employees chose to self-identify as disabled or veteran.

Of those who chose to self-identify:

- 21.83% are people/persons with disabilities
- 4.38% are veterans

Disparity Analysis

The following contain the results of the analyses conducted for the 2024 Affirmative Action Plans (AAP)

The analysis determines whether the selection rates differ statistically by race and/or gender. The statistical test identifies whether chance, or something other than chance, caused differences in selection rates between two groups. Whenever a disparity is identified an investigation to explain the disparity is advised.

Below are explanations of the data analyses using the January 1, 2023 through December 31, 2023.

Pay Gap

Companywide Unadjusted Pay Gaps

An unadjusted Pay Gap represents the average difference in between median earnings in a given year. This analysis is considered raw/unadjusted because it does not account for factors that may influence pay (job title, time in position, etc.). Goodwill has a lower pay gap than the U.S. average overall in each category. This data is benchmarked against $1.00 per male and white employees.
