STORY OF DETERMINATION

Michael

After being laid off from work in the oil fields, Michael questioned how he would support his family. He struggled to keep his home and provide for his two young sons.

Michael turned to the Good Careers Academy at Goodwill San Antonio where he enrolled in the Commercial Driver's License Program.

With his tuition paid for and the financial burden lifted, Michael began the intensive, hands-on training that put him on the road to finding a good job and a new career. Days after passing his exams and graduating at the top of his class, he received multiple job offers and the opportunity to elevate his family.

With training from Good Careers Academy, Michael is now in the driver's seat providing a stable and secure future for his family.
